BOLEN et. al.)
Defendants)

Plaintiffs have filed a 'New Amended Complaint & Motion for Pleading'. If the 'New Amended Complaint & Motion for Pleading' filed March 4, 2013 is meant to be the amended complaint with a more definite statement showing plaintiffs are entitled to relief referred to in the Supreme Court's remand, it must be properly served on the defendants with a summons. If it is not, plaintiffs are ordered to amend their complaint to make a more definite statement showing they are entitled to relief, re-file it with the District Court and properly serve it upon the defendants with a summons.

Dated March 15, 2013

David Cybulski
